Repetition can be a game developer's worst enemy. As players move through the world slashing at enemies thousands of times, the gravity of the action dissipates to the point where it becomes as thoughtless an exercise as flipping a light switch. With Skyrim's combat system, Bethesda wants to restore the visceral nature of hand-to-hand combat.

Rated 5 out of 5 by Beelzebube from Very good The Elder Scrolls V: Skyrim is a fantastic RPG. It has great action, great music and voice actors, great graphics, and load times are nonexistent (at least on the PC). I couldn't wish for a better game, and the glitches (in my opinion) make the game more fun and unpredictable.
